The Holy City

I stand with Israel

Hamburg , 20.10.2023, 21:55 Time

USPA NEWS - Before anything else, I'd like to write that whether countries worldwide have recognized the threat of terrorist groups and their supporters across the globe? The answer is undoubtedly affirmative. Groups like Hamas, Hezbollah, Ansar Allah (Houthi rebels), and many other extremist Islamic groups have, in recent times, established dangerous and often unauthorized gatherings in many countries.

However, the primary cancerous entity remains in Tehran, and figures like Khamenei, the IRGC (Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps), and the founders of all these terrorist groups must not be forgotten by any nation or legislator. Once again, I write that Khamenei has truly become the godfather of global terrorism and is a very perilous figure.

From these conditions, one can still utilize the situation for a blossoming Middle East without war. The terrorist attack by Hamas on the Holy Land of Israel was extremely horrific and will go down in history for how they kidnapped young girls, killed non-combatants, and committed very bizarre crimes.

These groups and their ilk have no place in human society. They are not fit for the year 2023 and should be consigned to history and eradicated.

In a situation where countries were inclined toward peace, and Gaza had achieved tranquility, and even Saudi Arabia was engaged in preparations for negotiations with the Holy Land of Israel to establish peace, progress, and lasting stability in the Middle East, and for the people of Palestine to experience peace, why did the terrorist group Hamas commit such a crime?

It is very clear that the system and existence of these groups are geared towards inciting war, especially at a time when the government of Ali Khamenei is on the verge of collapse. This war has led Ali Khamenei to take a significant gamble, and he is 100% the loser in this dirty game.

A dictator does not want to accept his own downfall, which is why he is willing to commit any inhumane atrocity. The initiator of this war was the Hamas group, while Israel has been and is still striving for peace. However, with the existence of the Islamic Republic and Ali Khamenei and all the groups supported by Iran in the Middle East, peace will not be achieved. Therefore, if we desire peace, we must unite and eradicate the cancer of the Islamic Republic of Iran.
